Designs on a good cause

Snow and ice didn't stop Denise Korn (inset) from hosting a benefit party for Youth Design at the Liberty Hotel the other night. Supporters mingled on behalf of the organization, which helps city high school students get internships at local design firms. Attendees included Youth Design board member and Boston Foundation exec Robert Lewis

Jr.; Josh Bruno, who won the night's "Mentor of the Year" award; Northeastern University Alumni Magazine design director Bruce Ployer; Stoltze Design owner Clif Stoltze; Matt Bacon of Motiv Design Group, and the design celeb of the night, D'Wayne Edwards, of Jordan Brand (as in Michael Jordan).
